

Boston 2017 : FORUM ACUSTICUM once again with ASA meeting.

As already decided in the EAA GA Assembly held in Aalborg (2011), the 8th FORUM ACUSTICUM in 2017 will be a joint event with the Acoustical Society of America in combination with the 173rd ASA meeting and will be held in Boston (MA) from 25 to 29 June 2017. It will be the first time that a big event co-organized by EAA will cross the Atlantic and will be held in USA. The previous cases of collaboration between EAA and ASA were the joint FORUM ACUSTICUM and ASA meetings in Berlin (1999) and Paris (2008).

After negotiations with ASA, and the final discussions held in Krakow between EAA representatives and the ASA executive director Susan Fox, the MoU for the organization of the joint event was signed in Indianapolis on Tuesday, October 28. The document was signed by the ASA President, Judy Dubno and the EAA President Michael Taroudakis. Co-Chairmen of the Conference will be Mats Abom from EAA and Damian Doria from ASA, Technical Program co-chairs will be Philippe Blanc Benon from EAA and Robert Koch from ASA.

The Conference will be held in John B. Hynes Veterans Memorial Convention Center in Boston.